PPC Group supports the ReBrain Greece initiative

- Successful participation in the ReBrain Greece events in London and Amsterdam
- More than 1,600 candidates visited the PPC stand

PPC Group supports the ReBrain Greece, an initiative of the Ministry of Labour and Social Security to attract talented Greeks living abroad and connect them with large Greek enterprises. PPC participated in the ReBrain Greece events, in London and Amsterdam, held this year in April and November, respectively.

In total, during both events, more than 1,600 high-skilled executives visited PPC's stand, where they had the chance to discuss with the HR Team about career opportunities within the Group. Moreover, the Group's HR Team presented PPC's transformation journey into a leading electricity company in Southeastern Europe, as well as its strategic goals and different actions for its people.

The ReBrain Greece aims to connect talented Greeks who live and work abroad, with high-skilled jobs in Greece. Through these initiatives, executives with expanded know-how and a modern way of thinking can be integrated into the Greek companies.

The participation of PPC in the ReBrain Greece events showcases the Group's commitment to support the return of Greek professionals to the country, utilizing their know-how to enhance initiative and growth. Within the same framework, PPC will also be present at the "Career Day" event, organized abroad for the first time, specifically in Düsseldorf, by the Public Employment Service (DYPA) and the Ministry of Labour and Social Security, in collaboration with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, on December 14th.

PPC Group is one of the largest employers in Greece. The Group constantly invests in a modern and people-oriented working environment, as well as in talented professionals.
