

Alexandros Fotakidis

Professional Experience

CVC Capital Partners (Private Equity Investing)

London, UK

Feb 2006 – Jan 2008: Investment Director, Capital Markets

Jan 2008 – Jan 2011: Director, Capital Markets

Jan 2011 – Jan 2013: Managing Director, Capital Markets

Jan 2013 – Jan 2016: Senior Managing Director, Capital Markets

Jan 2016 – To Date: Partner, Capital Markets until Jun 2021. Partner and Head of Greece since Jun 2021

Alexandros Fotakidis is a Partner at CVC and Head of Greece. Primary role is the origination of control and co-control investments in leading Greek companies, supporting Management teams to build better businesses. In Greece Alexandros is involved with the following companies:

- a) Hellenic Healthcare Group
- b) Skroutz
- c) Vivartia
- d) Dodoni
- e) PPC
- f) Ethniki Asfalistiki

He has significant relevant experience through assessing PPC / HEDNO since December 2020 and submitting a binding bid for the 49% of HEDNO in September 2021 in his role as Head of Greece, as well as in leading the debt financing of CVC portfolio companies including Naturgy, CLH, Neptune and PKPE in his previous role at CVC as Head of Capital Markets.

CIBC World Markets plc, European Leveraged Finance Group (Investment Banking)

London, UK

Dec 2005 – Jan 2006: Director

Dec 2002 – Dec 2005: Associate

Nov 2000 – Dec 2002: Analyst

Primary role was the origination, structuring, execution and syndication of debt financing for buyouts on behalf of private equity clients including CVC, Montagu, Apax, 3i and KKR.

Education

University College London

MSc in Environmental and Natural Resource Economics

1999 – 2000

University College London

BSc in Economics and Geography

1996 – 1999